Alternative Service for Teens

Come for an alternative prayer service for teens, suggested by teens, planned by teens and run by teens. There will be abbreviated prayers and a short Torah reading. After that, it's time to wonder, think and talk in the following creative exercise: Each member of the group is invited to pose a question that is on his or her mind. It can be on any topic of your choice, heavy or not so heavy, religious or not so religious. The group will discuss the questions, and end with kiddush, eating, drinking, and hanging out.

Film & Discussion: THE FRONT, with Screenwriter

Walter Bernstein

Join us for a very special evening when we welcome Walter Bernstein, screenwriter of The Front, for a discussion following the screening. AC member Stuart Klawans, film critic for The Nation, will introduce the film.

Walter Bernstein wrote The Front based on his own experiences as a blacklisted writer during the McCarthy era and on the experiences of his friends, including director Martin Ritt and cast members Zero Mostel, Herschel Bernardi, Lloyd Gough, and Joshua Shelley.

This is the final film in this year's New York Jews film series, sponsored by AC's Adult Education Committee and curated by Adrienne Weiss. (Suggested donation $5.)
