PASSOVER WORKSHOPS THIS WEEK

Sunday, April 10 at 10:30 a.m.

Mah Nishtana! A Different Seder for You and Your Family

Jerry Raik, long-time principal of the Havurah School and a master at engaging kids in Jewish learning, will help you make Passover a rich experience for friends and family of all ages.

Wednesday, April 13 at 7:30 p.m.

The Whats and Hows of Kashering

This workshop with Rabbi Kalmanofsky will help you understand the sometimes daunting complexities of keeping kosher for Passover. The workshop will cover the details of kashering your kitchen (applicable also to year-round kashrut), as well as explanations of which foods are permitted or forbidden and why. Bring your questions!

Monday, April 18 at 7:45 p.m.

The Missing Peace: Israel and Palestine After Arafat

Lecture & Dialogue with
Dennis Ross

U.S. envoy to the Middle East,
1988-2000

Ambassador Dennis Ross, chief Middle East peace negotiator in the presidential administrations of George H.W. Bush and Bill Clinton, is recognized by both Republicans and Democrats as the expert on the peace process. Charged for over a decade with educating presidents and the Congress on all matters dealing with the Middle East, Ross is that rare figure respected and trusted by both the right and the left, Palestinians and Israelis alike. For advance reservations, respond to events@anschechesed.org or call ext. 407 in the AC office.

This program is made possible in part by the support of Minyan M'at.

PASSOVER AT AC

Thursday, April 21

Fast of the First Born - Taanit Bekhorim

Siyyum after morning minyan.

Friday Evening, April 22

"Erev Erev" Passover Dinner

Let someone else prepare Friday night dinner for you the night before the two seders! Cost: Members $30, non-members $35, children ages 4-10 $15. The gym will be open for supervised play for children.

Sunday, April 24

Second Night Community Seder

Join Rabbi Kalmanofsky and his family for a second night seder geared for all ages when we ask our questions and tell the story of our people's liberation. Cost: AC members and seniors $65, non-members $80, children $25.

Hametz Reminder

If you plan on designating Rabbi Kalmanofsky to sell your hametz, please visit the synagogue any time up until Shabbat on Friday, April 22 and sign the form at the front desk. Also, remember the Haggada's call: Kol dikhfeen yetey v'yekhol — All who are hungry, come and eat. Please remember to make a contribution to the Ansche Chesed Rabbi's Discretionary Fund to help feed those in need this Pesach.

First Seder Home Hospitality

Ansche Chesed members who are hosting seders have traditionally opened their homes to members who need a place to attend. If you would like to be a guest or to host someone for the first night of Pesach, please call Sharri Posen at ext. 415 in the AC office.

Passover Food Drive

As in past years, we are collecting non-perishable packaged foods for the food pantry run by the West Side Campaign Against Hunger. Food may be brought until Friday morning, April 22. Food may also be brought to Congregation Shaare Zedek, 212 West 93rd Street, on Sunday, April 17 from noon to 2 p.m. Then stay to nosh and learn with Rabbi Mark Ankorn of Shaare Zedek and Rabbi Jeremy Kalmanofsky.
