COMING UP

LEARN TO BLOW THE SHOFAR

You can learn to play the shofar! It's not that difficult to get a sound out of it, and with a little practice, you can achieve a glorious resonant sound that can truly stir the soul. Bring your shofar, and AC member Ron Meyers will help you become a real baal tekiah!

Sunday, September 10 at 9:30am

CSA: LOOKING FOR INSPIRATION?

Quickly turn delicious (or overripe!) fruit into simple but stunning desserts, homemade jam or applesauce. We'll soon be getting apples, plums, pears, and grapes. You'll be ready for them once you've attended this workshop. See the e-Newsletter for more details. Wednesday, September 13 at 7pm

BREAKING, REPAIRING, AND MAKING WHOLE AGAIN AT THE YAMIM NORAIM

To have a personally enriching Elul, Rosh HaShana and Yom Kippur, we must endure the necessary honest pain of admitting what we break, working to repair it, begging forgiveness and pardoning others who do the same. Please join Rabbi Kalmanofsky at a Shabbat evening dinner for learning from Judaism's ethical and pietistic sources, and personal reflection.

See the e-Newsletter or the website to register.

Friday Night, September 15

Kabbalat Shabbat Services at 6:30pm

Dinner at 7:30pm

UNETANEH TOKEF:

LIVING IN CLAY HOUSES

Please join Rabbi Kalmanofsky and Hazzan Hirschhorn to explore the meaning and music of the most religiously challenging yet most spiritually stirring passage in the High Holiday prayer book. What does Unetaneh Tokef really mean? Why and how does it move us so? How do its words and the musical versions through the ages combine for poetic power?

Saturday night, September 16

Learning at 9:45pm

Selichot Services at 11pm

FREE HOUSEWARES SHARE 'N SWAP

Donate clean, used housewares in good condition; Take any housewares you want for free! See the e-Newsletter for all of the details.

TEEN CLASS

AC high school students are invited to join Rabbi Jeremy Kalmanofsky, Rabbi Yael Hammerman, and Sam Hollander, Ansche Chesed's Youth and Family Program Director, for a bi-weekly class involving current events, Jewish texts and engaging conversations. We'll serve the pizza, and you're encouraged to bring questions, ideas and your friends.

First Class, Tuesday October 10 at 6:15pm

KEEPIN' UP WITH THE KINDER

Join Rabbi Yael for a "Judaism Crash Course" geared at parents who would like to strengthen their own Jewish knowledge, skills and comfort level. Open to individuals of any religious background. We will explore the Jewish holiday cycle and synagogue building; navigate through the Siddur (prayer book) and Chumash (Bible), and work together to connect with what our kids are learning in their Jewish education. See the e-Newsletter for more details. Monthly, Mondays, 7:30-9pm
