ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANSCHESHESED SALONS

Anshe Chesed is piloting a program that invites small groups to salons in the homes of synagogue members, in order to learn about the vocation or avocation of another member. These informal gatherings are an opportunity to learn and create relationships.

At this year's salons we will be learning from the following Anshe Chesed members:

Susan Chira: New York Times columnist

Amy Einhorn: A book editor/publisher

Jim Meier: An endurance athlete

As space is limited, we invite you to email Darone Ruskay at druskay@ansheched.org if you are interested in a salon.

BOARD NOMINATIONS

Each year, a nominating committee is appointed to bring new leadership to Anshe Chesed's Board of Trustees.

Nominations are open now until April 1st. Please see the e-Newsletter for information on how to nominate members.

SACRED ART OF DISAGREEING: SHABBAT DINNER WITH RABBI AMY EILBERG

In a world in which no one trusts the same news source, and memes are replacing facts, it is more important than ever that we understand how to disagree with our fellow human beings.

Disagreements are natural, and in fact, important. Rabbi Eilberg will show us how they can be sacred.

Join us for Shabbat Dinner as we welcome Rabbi Amy Eilberg, as our scholar in residence!

Kabbalat Shabbat at 6:30pm, followed by dinner

FRIDAY, MARCH 16

SACRED ART OF DISAGREEING: POTLUCK LUNCH WITH RABBI AMY EILBERG

Join us for a potluck Shabbat lunch after davening to welcome our Scholar in Residence Rabbi Amy Eilberg, (the first woman ordained as a Conservative Rabbi by The Jewish Theological Seminary) as our scholar in residence. Rabbi Eilberg will discuss Mahloket Leshem Shamayim, the Sacred Art of Disagreeing.

SATURDAY, MARCH 17

KONSTANTY GEBERT: HOW POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS IN POLAND ARE IMPACTING THE JEWISH COMMUNITY

Polish Prime Minister Beata Szydlo's Cabinet approved a bill which would criminalize the use of the phrase "Polish death camps" in reference to Nazi-run extermination camps in occupied Poland. Come hear Konstanty Gebert speak about how this law, and other developments, are impacting the Jewish community in Poland.

MONDAY, MARCH 19 at 7pm

PREPPING FOR PESACH: A LUNCH AND LEARN WITH RABBI KALMANOFSKY

Join Rabbi Jeremy Kalmanofsky as we explore the Passover Hagaddah in preparation for Pesach. We invite you to bring lunch and your questions to help make your Passover seder unforgettable. Don't worry, your lunch does not have to be Pesadik.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21 at 12:30pm

EVERYTHING PASSOVER AT ANSCHE CHESED

Please visit our website to find all the information you need about Passover at Ansche Chesed. There, you will find event listings and service schedules, as well as information on our Food Drive, Kol Foods, Home Hospitality for the First Seder, Book of Remembrance, and Sale of Chametz. SOCIAL ACTION

PASSOVER PACKAGE DELIVERY

Brighten the day of a senior! Share the joy and warmth of Passover with an elder by delivering a package of traditional holiday foods and visiting for about an hour.

Join others from Ansche Chesed for this important and rewarding mitzvah. We'll meet as a group for an orientation and then break up into pairs or families for our visits.

A number of us participated in the previous package delivery and found it an easy and meaningful way to support elders in our neighborhood.

SUNDAY, MARCH 18 at 10:30am

YOUTH AND FAMILY

TEEN CLASS

High School students are welcome to join the bi-weekly Tuesday class with Rabbi Kalmanofsky and Sam Hollander. Spring Semester: The Jewish People, America, Zionism, and Judaism

How is Judaism like a religion, comparable to Christianity and Islam? How is it like a nation, comparable to France or Japan? For us American Jews, what is our connection to the modern state of Israel and to an ancestral homeland? Pizza will be served.

Tuesday at 6:15pm

NEXT CLASS MARCH 13, 3/27, 4/10, 4/24, 5/8

DOR L'DOR PRE-PASSOVER SHABBAT DINNER

Intergenerational Family Shabbat Service and Dinner

Let us take care of Shabbat dinner on the last Shabbat before Passover! Families - including grandparents! - are invited to join us for a Family Shabbat Service and Dinner. Parents and grandparents will explore together how we pass down the stories of our families, and our people, from one generation to the next. Open Gym for kids.

Please register by Wednesday, March 21 at 12PM.

FRIDAY, MARCH 23 at 5:30pm

FAMILY PASSOVER FESTIVAL OF FREEDOM

Celebrate Passover in Central Park and at The Jewish Museum. Climb the pyramids of Egypt at the Ancient Playground in Central Park. Bring a picnic lunch and we will provide a yummy snack.

After, we will walk as a group to The Jewish Museum for a Passover extravaganza featuring art, music, and dancing! Enjoy the soulful sounds of ShirLaLa, craft a holiday artifact, create a freedom painting, add to a Passover-themed installation, explore the galleries, and more!
